

small sculpture from america

small sculpture from america

a presentation of the united states cultural centers in tel aviv and jerusalem.

arranged by the smithsonian institution, national collection of fine art, international art program, washington, d.c.

tel aviv : february 22 — march 4, 1970

jerusalem : march 8 — march 15, 1970

32. UNTITLED, FROM SOUVENIRS SERIES

ROBERTO POLO

Uvex plastic. 23"×23"×23".

Roberto Polo, born in 1951, studied at the Corcoran School of Art, Washington. He has had four one-man exhibitions, including one at the Corcoran Gallery of Art.

33. NUMBER THIRTY, 1968

CHUCK PRENTISS

Dielectric coated glass, stainless steel, light. 8"×8"×8".

Born in 1942, Chuck Prentiss has had a one-man exhibition and has participated in three group shows. His works are in various private collections in the U.S.

34. SHADOW BOX "F"

V. V. RANKINE

Plexiglas. 20½"×15"×9½".

V. V. Rankine studied at Phillips Gallery Art School and has had several one-man shows in the United States. His works are in a number of major U.S. collections, including the Corcoran Gallery of Art, the National Collection of Fine Arts of the Smithsonian Institution and the Gallery of Modern Art—all in Washington, D.C. Washington.