

AFFIDAVIT

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT ON THIS DAY THE UNDERSIGNED APPEARED BEFORE ME, A NOTARY PUBLIC AND AFTER BEING DULY SWORN, DEPOSED AND SAID:

1. My name is Matthias Camenzind.
2. I am a Swiss journalist, living and working in Geneva.
3. During the first five months of this year, I undertook a profound investigation of the extradition case of Roberto Polo, an U.S. citizen whose extradition from the United States is sought by Switzerland.
4. The most important weekly news magazine of the French-speaking part of Switzerland, "L'Hebdo" published the investigative article which I wrote about Roberto Polo's extradition case.
5. Because I believed firmly in the Swiss justice system and in the impartiality of its judges, it was difficult for me to believe in the early stages of my investigation, that Roberto Polo's extradition case is not a routine one. Only after having personally interviewed Robert Reger, Esq., of the New York law firm of Reid & Priest, who represents Emilio Martinez-Manautou, former Governor of the state of Tamaulipas, Mexico, did I realize that they filed a fraudulent criminal complaint against Roberto Polo in Geneva.
6. During my personal interview of Robert Reger, he lied in a cold-blooded manner without any apparent sign of indisposition. He made false affirmations about matters of which I have first-hand knowledge and that I know are simply not true.
7. My personal interview of Robert Reger, together with some articles which I read about the tragic fate of a government opposition journalist in the state of Tamaulipas, who was assassinated, made me fear for my personal security. This frightful feeling intensified after interviewing the Swiss investigating magistrate Vladimir Stemberger. It was Vladimir Stemberger who issued Roberto Polo's Extradition Warrant and Warrant to Convey at the request of Emilio Martinez-Manautou and its attorneys.
8. During my personal interview, Vladimir Stemberger circumlocuted my questions and misrepresented facts of which I have first-hand knowledge. After I concluded interviewing Vladimir Stemberger it was perfectly clear to me that he does not even consider the possible innocence of Roberto Polo, which is for me a clear sign of partiality, to the prejudice of Roberto Polo. This is still my opinion.

- 9. After interviewing Vladimir Stemberger I undertook to publish the results of my investigation as quickly as possible for fear.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

THE AFFIANT SAYETH NOTHING FURTHER.
